Air Pollution Advisory

The Environmental Protection Commission of Hillsborough County is issuing an Air Pollution ADVISORY due to elevated levels of the pollutants OZONE and PARTICULATE MATTER. This advisory became effective at 12:00 pm today May 20, 2011. Based on our current numbers at multiple air monitoring stations, there is the potential for levels to reach the unhealthy for sensitive groups Air Quality Index range for the pollutant ozone today as well as tomorrow. Due to various fires throughout the state, we are currently seeing elevated particulate matter as well. Air Quality Index values from 101 - 150 are considered Unhealthy for Sensitive Groups. This advisory is in effect until dusk tomorrow, May 21, 2011. The outlook for tomorrow is: conditions which lead to today's elevated levels are likely to persist through tomorrow evening. Individuals with pre-existing respiratory ailments, the elderly or the very young may want to take this into consideration when planning any outside activities. If you have any questions or need further information, please call: The Environmental Protection Commission, Air Management Division Tom Tamanini (813) 363-8815.
