

Chinese Delegation

The Environmental Protection Commission (EPC) welcomed a Chinese Delegation from Jiaxing City, just south of Shanghai, to EPC on September 27th, 2011. The meeting began with a welcoming gesture of specially prepared hot tea.

Roger Zhu, EPC staff member, translated for the group which allowed for a meaningful discussion of environmental protection issues between EPC Directors and the Chinese Delegation.

The Chinese Delegation was led by Mr. Zhang Genfu, Deputy Director of Jiaxing Administrative Examination and Approval Service. Mr. Genfu was especially interested in the laboratory and monitoring ability of the EPC as well as the process of environmental protection.

Dr. Garrity and the EPC Directors explained how protecting the environment is supported by our elected officials and that environmental protection is good for the people and the economy of a community.

